Preread:
  - Go back and skim your notes from Ch 5 Part 1. Review major ideas.

The Road to Independence 1771-1776:
  - Committees of Correspondence:

    - Why were they important?

    - In a good paragraph, chronologically explain the correlation of the Tea Act of 1773, the Boston Tea Party, and the Coercive Acts:

    - How did the Patriot Leaders respond to the Coercive Acts?

    - In your opinion, was compromise still possible?

      - British hope?

      - American hope?

    - How did the American rural population feel about revolution?

    - What changed their minds?

    - Loyalists: Describe and explain their views:
Violence East and West
- What led to Dunmore’s War?

- Why did Western settlers support it?

- Minutemen and what happened at Lexington and Concord:

- King George III:

- How did the violence around Boston in the spring of 1775 affect the proceedings of the Second Continental Congress?

- Olive Branch Petition:

- What was the common sense in Paine’s “Common Sense”?

- Why was this such an important part of the resistance movement? What did it accomplish that hadn’t occurred already?

- What led to the writing of the Declaration of Independence?

- What were the main ideas/principals stated?

- BIG QUESTION:
  - Consider whether the collapse of British authority in the 13 rebellious colonies might have been avoided through compromise measures and better leadership or was it inevitable and war was the only way to fix?